YOU NAMED IT WHAT?

After exhausting numerous lists of potential names & not liking any of them, we decided to look locally for inspiration. It is understood that back in early 1800's Native Americans inhabited the Cahaba River Bank immediately east of here along Sicard Hollow. The area was referred to as "Mudtown". After that, it was officially named Merkle and later New Merkle. Cahaba Heights later followed, and now officially Vestavia Hills. We felt compelled to do our part in preserving the rich local history of this part of the South.

MUDTOWN LIFESTYLE

Come in, sit back, RELAX and enjoy yourself. We try to make every Mudtown experience a pleasant one, but what really makes Mudtown special is the people who come here. Don't worry about the tables being so close together, we're all friends here. If you think the dining room is too small, the parking too difficult, or don't like the music, you don't have to tell us. We already know!
